Friends and fashionistas: Berlin Fashion Week is close! Why not plan ahead and take the time between shows and appointments to enjoy the city? Berlin doesn't just have great sights; it also has fantastic culinary offerings – whether you're searching for a cozy place to grab a bite or a rooftop restaurant with an amazing view, there's something for everyone. We've made a list of our favourites to help you plan. Note: we suggest making reservations ahead of time!

Zenkichi Berlin... recommended by Sarah // Head of Online

If you want to enjoy an exclusive dinner in elegant surroundings you should visit Zenkichi Berlin. The modern Japanese brasserie is the best place to experience the Japanese way of dining and to escape from the daily routine. If you have a date night or just want to focus on your company, the sound of Jazz in the background will let you forget the Fashion Week stress in seconds. Mouth-watering delicacies like sashimi, exquisite sakes and handmade tofu will please even the pickiest eater.
